

Is the Enroute Decision Point Tool a Good Resource for Your Flying

Situational Awareness is so important for safe flight

This Two Hour seminar is led by two experienced Professional pilot Nick Bettendorf and McHenry Priestley that will speak on The Enroute Decision Point (EDP) Tool has been around for many years. Do you utilize this tool for your flying? How can it impact Inadvertent Instrument Meteorological Conditions (IIMC) avoidance and get you home safely? The EDP has its place in both IFR and VFR flying. Learn to use it as a proactive partner in your cockpit resource management. Coffee and donuts are provided! Fly-in or drive-in! All are welcome!

The Lake Country Aviation FBO is located in the large hangar on the main ramp at Lake Country Airport (W11)
