

Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota FAAS Team presents:

2020 Tri-State Aerial Applications Convention

Join us for the 2020 Annual Tri-State Aerial Applicators Convention in Saint Cloud, Minnesota. This traditional event has provided resources for many Part 137 aerial operators with the tri-State areas of Minnesota, North Dakota, and South Dakota. This event will begin on Monday, February 10th and extend through Wednesday, February 12th.

This year's program will feature one of the largest trade shows in the nation for agricultural aviation professionals. Many pilots, owners, and operators enjoy the networking opportunities, along with a wide-range of speakers and events. This event takes great pride in promoting aviation safety and values that come from operating a safety business.

Don't miss out on this great event and get the latest information on advance technologies. Click on the website link above for a complete listing of times, events, and presentations.

Directions: The River's Edge Convention Center is located in Saint Cloud, MN.
