

SC FSDO FFASTEAM presents:

Runway Safety and the CAE RSAT

Wrong surface operations have led to runway incursions, near misses, surface collisions, and fatal accidents. We will review taxi, takeoff, and landing instructions and procedures and best practices to ensure safe operations. This presentation will be followed by an interactive Columbia Metropolitan Airport Runway Safety Action Team Briefing.

WINGS credit available!

Remember to participate in WINGS - the FAA's Pilot Proficiency Program. Benefits of WINGS - It's the right thing to do for safety! It's makes one a more competent and confident pilot! It's easy to get involved and track your progress! It's satisfies the flight review requirements for pilots! It is a lifelong program with no limit on the number of Phases available at each of three levels. Pilots can work on all three levels simultaneously! Many industry training providers and service organizations have activities and syllabi that are pre-approved for WINGS credit! Metallic WINGS pins are provided to pilots when they earn their first Phase at each level including Sea WINGSCFIs that get their clients phased in WINGS can use this as a basis to renew their own CFI certificate! It may qualify pilots for a discount on their insurance! CFIs that participate may win a cash prize
